Bio

I am a proud Union Bricklayer out of local 21 IL. I have been a bricklayer since 2007. I journeyed out in 2011. I also attended Chicago Women in Trades in the fall of 2006. I am very laid back but like to focus on a job well done. I am here to help everyone who would like to continue their careers in the trades.

Why Liliana Was Nominated

She was always a very hard worker, quick learner and absolutely best in her class. She went to work for a signatory contractor and worked her way up to For-person in less than 10 years. She is a model member especially to promote women in the trades. She is currently on the Board of Directors at the Chicago Women on Trades.
