

Mishelle Wallace

Tradeswomen Heroes Award
Winner - February 2021

Level of Experience: Journeyworker

Years in Trade: 12

Union: Ironworkers

Local: 392

Bio

Mishelle's uncle was an ironworker and she also influenced her son into becoming one too. Being a pillar of the community, Mishelle is always in great spirits and she is idolized by everyone that works with or around her.

Why Mishelle Was Nominated

This photo was taken on July 8, 2020, after working in 94 degree weather with a heat index of 102. The day before, a 25-year-old man went home in the morning, and this day, two young men went home early and never returned. Mishelle packs and ties rods on bridge decks, works hard, and never complains. She is extremely strong both physically and mentally. Being an ironworker for 12 years, managing through both good times and bad, Mishelle never quit. She is just a great asset to all tradespeople.