

Sarah Harkssen

Tradeswomen Heroes Award
Winner - February 2021

Level of Experience: Apprentice

Years in Trade: 4+

Union: UA

Local: 3

---

Bio

Sarah is starting her 5th year of apprenticeship. She is a proven leader in the classroom as well as in the field. She is an extremely driven young lady and will be a lifelong leader in the industry. She is committed to making the industry a female friendly working environment and is very involved in Trades Women Build Nations both locally and nationally.

---

Why Sarah Was Nominated

I am nominating Sarah because she has set herself apart from others in the trade with her determination and foresight to excel. She has had perfect attendance through her apprenticeship, #1 ranked apprentice, not only in her class but throughout the entire apprenticeship with a 98.43%. Competed in the apprenticeship contest as a 3rd year, winning the local and state competition and respectfully finishing 2nd in the regional contest. She successfully obtained her state journey person license as a 4th year apprentice. Sarah represented Local #3 at the Tradeswomen Build Nations conference in 2018 and 2019, and also was a guest apprentice at the UA's Officers Convention.