

Kelsea Lock

Tradeswomen Heroes Award

Winner - November 2021

Level of Experience: Apprentice

Years in Trade: 2

Union: Insulators

Local: 14

---

Bio

Kelsea Lock is a 2nd year apprentice with the Insulators Local 14. Kelsea is a 2nd generation Insulator whose father, retired member Tim, was an Officer with Local. Kelsea has a brother (Dan) who is also a journeyworker with the Insulators. Kelsea is in the Army National Guard. Kelsea was a valuable asset for the City Of Philadelphia during the civil unrest in the summer of 2020 providing assistance to the law enforcement community.

---

Why Kelsea Was Nominated

Kelsea Lock is an asset to the Insulators Local 14. Kelsea is well respected with her work ethic on the jobsite as well as being an exemplary student in the classroom. Kelsea is a highly-motivated member who can be counted on to go out of her way to assist another member. Kelsea embodies what this award means. Kelsea served in the National Guard in Philadelphia. There was a lot of uncertainty in the summer of 2020 when no one could tell what was going to happen on any given day.