Bio

Sister Elizabeth joined the Local as an apprentice in 2019. Her lessons and exams are consistently done well. With 2 years of experience in the trade, she exhibits great potential.

In her leisure time, Liz enjoys the beach, is a fan of classic car shows and loves spending time with family and friends.

Why Liz Was Nominated

Liz is very grateful to the women in the UA who paved the way for her and looks forward to providing that path to other women interested in the trade. She goes to work every day and gives it her all and her performance reports reflect that. You cannot ask more from a person.
