Bio

Alise Martiny has committed her life to our trade and has a resume that is unmatched...Her Trade Sisters and I consider her the Queen Bee for many reasons, but mostly because of her extensive reach within her local, her Building Trades, and around throughout the reach of our International. In addition to being an exceptional craftswomen, she has served as an executive board member of her local, as VP of her local, as President of her local from 99-08. She was a Business Agent from 99-01, the Apprenticeship Coordinator from 93-99, represented the Cement Masons as a Job Corps Instructor, has achieved 25 year, 30 year, 40 year milestones within the OPCMIA, served as President of her local again from 14-20 and is currently the VP of her local since 2020. Her current role is as the Business Manager of the Kansas City Building Trades.

Why Alise Was Nominated

I don't even know where to begin with expressing reasons for nominating my Sister, Alise. She has been a role model and an idol to me since I first heard about her. One of the greatest things about Alise is that she has successfully dominated the field for so long and has achieved every milestone and with each and every achievement she has never ever forgotten to reach back and encourage whoever is coming up behind her to share in her success. She is a true leader in every sense of the word and finds success in helping other men and women become the best that they can be. She makes an impact and commands respect by doing what needs to be done with confidence and never wavering from her value for hard work and being the best. I am grateful to her for her leadership and I know that I am among MANY who feel the same. Alise is the epitome of a Tradeswomen Hero.
