Bio

Jennah was accepted into our apprenticeship in 2016. She applied and worked at her apprenticeship so that she could provide for herself and her family whom she was helping support. She is scheduled to complete her apprenticeship this coming June. She has worked her entire apprenticeship with Alterman Electric here in San Antonio and has proven herself well. She is currently in line to move into a supervisory position as soon as she is done with her schooling having excelled in working in health care environments. She has a bright future ahead and is on the road to being a leader in our industry.

Why Jennah Was Nominated

Jennah has worked hard, understanding she was competing with her male counterparts for acceptance and advancement opportunities within her field. She worked through adversity and personal hardships during her apprenticeship and never let her spirit or drive wane. She is always looking for the next opportunity to prove herself an asset to her employer and her industry in serving customers and them to the best of her abilities. She also uses knowledge and learning as a driving force to accomplishing her tasks and goals. She is a model to be followed for future generations of female associates looking to succeed. She embodies the female force in construction and should be recognized for her efforts.
