

We are pleased to announce a fully online version of:
Building Trades Academy 107: Multi-Craft Core Curriculum (MC3)
Online Train-the-Trainer for Coordinators and Instructors

NABTU's MC3 is now available in a fully-online format.
This class (offered via Zoom) will introduce instructors to the MC3 and also introduce previously trained instructors to the new Online MC3.

Online MC3 Train-the-Trainer
(All Classes Held from 12pm - 3:30pm ET)

November 16-17 (FULL); December 7-8; December 14-15

Whole group sessions will meet both days of the training. Small group and individual work will be completed prior to the beginning of whole group instruction both days of training. Assignments, readings, and registration information will be distributed the week prior to the training for registered participants.

To enroll, please contact Nicole Schwartz (nschwartz@nabtu.org) or Tom Kriger (tkrigger@nabtu.org).

Participants must have prior approval from the local Building Trades Council to enroll in this class.

Enrollment is limited to 12 participants (per class).
