Bio

Hannah Wilson is a 4th Year wireman apprentice who joined IBEW L.U. 1547 in 2019. Before she became an electrical apprentice, she worked as a veterinary technician and as a clinical technician and brings an eye for detail from those jobs into her new career. She enjoys the challenges of being an apprentice in Alaska, where crews may work in any number of urban, rural, or remote projects, contending with all kinds of weather and terrain to get the job done. She looks forward to becoming a journeyman in 2024, and to continuing her education in the ever-changing electrical industry.

Why Hannah Was Nominated

Hannah is a sharp student in her apprenticeship classes and a diligent problem-solver in the field. She has regularly volunteered to share her new trade with others during public outreach events and embodies some of the best qualities of a wireman: a great team member, a capable problem-solver, detail-oriented, impeccably organized, and has a great attitude. We are lucky to have her in Local 1547.
