Bio

My name is Femina Fosmo, I am a 21-year-old Ironworker and a CNA. I served in the Army National Guard for 4 years as a Combat Engineer. I joined in 11th grade and attended Basic Training that following summer. I went back to school for my senior year and shipped back to Ft. Leonard Wood for my MOS training, where I received an award for 'Expert' in shooting my M16. Shortly after, I became a second-generation Ironworker following in my dad and brother's footsteps.

I am attending Lakeshore Technical College (LTC), enrolled in a 4-year nursing program. I plan to become a journeyman Ironworker and an RN - I love what I do for a living.
