Bio

Ashley has been a dedicated Local 1 Sister for almost 20 years. She currently serves as an Executive Board member for Local 1. She's also head of the Women's Committee for the Midwest States Conference. She has also served as trustee for Local 1.

Why Ashley Was Nominated

I'm nominating her because of her continued dedication to Local 1, organized labor, and the advancement of women's rights in the construction industry. I believe that she is a model Union member and an inspiration to Women who work in the building trades.
