Bio

Jessica Ackler, a 16-year Union Insulator with Local 14, embodies the spirit of resilience and service as a US Army veteran, a devoted mother of three, and a trailblazer in the union trade. Hailing from a lineage deeply rooted in the union tradition, with a grandfather and her father as union Insulators, Jessica carries on the family legacy with pride and dedication. Her marriage to a fellow union Insulator reflects a shared commitment to hard work and strong union ethics. Jessica's unwavering determination, coupled with her passion for empowering women in traditionally male-dominated industries, serves as a beacon of inspiration and advocacy for her fellow union members and women everywhere striving to make their mark.
