Bio

Molly King has had a slew of jobs during her lifetime, and her walk of life has led her through trials and tribulations that would leave any lesser person in the gutter and hitting the reset button. Molly has flown through the Apprenticeship program at IW Local 7 with ease over the past 3 years while also climbing the ladder at one of our most competitive reinforcing contractors South Coast Steel.

Why Molly Was Nominated

Molly has been at the top of her class from Day 1. Molly is wrapping up her 3 years in our program with a bow that has her poised to compete at the International's Outstanding Apprentice competition. Molly has made leaps and bounds that others in her class noticed but were hard-pressed to replicate. Molly will be a force to be reckoned with for years to come.
