Bio

Sabrina is a third-year apprentice at IBEW Local 697 in northwest Indiana. She attended her first Tradeswomen Build Nations Conference this past December and felt all the love and solidarity from her other sisters across the country. She currently works for A&E Electric and can't wait to keep continuing on this journey.

Why Sabrina Was Nominated

Since Sabrina's first day of boot camp class, she showed initiative, ambition, and working with a means of urgency. She excels in the classroom at our JATC and in the field. She is heavily active in our Women's Committee and volunteers with countless philanthropy projects and fundraisers. We cannot wait to see what she will do in the years to come and where her career will take her.
