Bio

Arianna Jackson decided to look into the trades after she had worked for a few years as a cleaner. She went to the WRTP Big Step apprenticeship readiness program here in Milwaukee, WI to get her start. Arianna's love for her craft and willingness to try anything has made her a valuable asset to her union and her contractor.

Why Nominate Arianna?

Since the beginning of Arianna's apprenticeship, she has looked for ways to get more involved in her union and to bring awareness to everyone about the benefits of apprenticeship.

As a founding member of the IUPAT DC7 Women's Committee and board member for empowHER WI, she has been helping out at career fairs and is always willing to tell her story. Arianna's positive attitude is infectious.
